PRESENTATION OF $5,000 CHECK HASTENED CLOSING OF FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OPINIONS DIFFER AS TO HOW MUCH WILL DEPOSITORS RECEIVE

Had J. B. Pike, cashier of the Federal Reserve bank of Atlanta, arrived in Daytona earlier yesterday, the First National bank would not have suspended, is the opinion of R. S. Wiley, vice-president of the institution. The First National sent securities to the Federal Reserve bank and asked for a loan of $20,000. Some of the securities were rejected and only $13,000 was advanced to the First National. The officials of the First National contended the securities which the Federal Reserve bank rejected to be good and Mr. Pike was on his way to Daytona to investigate these securities. In the meantime, however, a check for $5,000 was presented to the First National for payment and not having the currency on hand, it was necessary to suspend before the arrival of Mr. Pike.

It seems almost astonishing the number of working people, especially workers who are here for the season only, that had their savings in the defunct institution. Many negroes also had accounts there, it being the fallacious opinion of many people not well informed that the United States government is more or less responsible for the deposits of a nation of bank.

While the officers of the First National contend that depositors will eventually be paid 100 cents on the dollar, it is generally conceded that the First National held considerable paper that would not be considered safe. While the Federal laws provide that all stockholders shall be liable to an assessment equal to the face of the stock held, it is conceded that some of the stockholders are execution proof and consequently the full assessment necessary to make up any deficit would not be forthcoming.

As to just what amount will be paid depositors is more or less a matter of speculation until the national bank examiner has had an opportunity to go thoroughly into the affairs of the institution.

CLARK RENOMINATED FOR SPEAKER BY THE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Champ Clark was today unanimously nominated for reelection as speaker of the house at the caucus of Democrats.

Mrs. Alice E. Seville and daughter, Miss Josephine, of Ocean Grove, N. J., departed Wednesday of this week on their return north. While here Mrs. Seville and daughter were located at the Bethel apartments on North Ridgewood avenue and Miss Seville, being a talented vocalist and elocutionist, gave the visitors at the hotel a great deal of pleasure during her stay in Daytona and will be greatly missed.

NICARAGUAN HELD FOR POSSIBLE CONNECTION WITH GOVERNMENT PLOT

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—Information from sources considered reliable says that Julian Irias, former presidential candidate of the Liberals in Nicaragua is held here on the charge of being illegally in the United States. He is really held pending an investigation of his possible connection with an alleged conspiracy to overthrow simultaneously all the Central American republics under German influences.

ALL SOUTHERN RAILROADS
ASK FOR INCREASED RATES
WASHINGTON, March 30.—Traffic officials of virtually every southern railroad today decided to join in a request that freight rates be advanced from 10 to 15 per cent.

RATES ON PRODUCE CHANGED BY ORDER OF COMMERCE COM.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The Interstate Commerce commission today approved the general revision of freight rates on fruits and vegetables from southern states to northern and middle western markets. The order brings the rates on a parity with those of other producing sections. Many rates are increased, many reduced and some unchanged.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Collins, who had been in the city for a week or longer, returned to Jacksonville this morning. Mr. Collins is the agent for the Hart Line of Oklahoma steamers and has been here and elsewhere along the East Coast during the season in the interest of that line. Both Mr. and Mrs. Collins are well known here and have many friends in the city and vicinity.

100 SUBMARINE NETS ORDERED BY NAVY; CUNARD LINER HERE

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The Navy department today placed orders with the American Steel & Wire company of Philadelphia for the immediate construction of 100 steel rope submarine nets.

The fact that the Cunard liner Orinima was stopped off the Irish coast by a British torpedo boat destroyer and hurried into the nearest port while the north channel was cleared of a great flock of mines was revealed by the vessel's officers as the reason that the Orinima was three days overdue when she arrived in an American port Friday.

Five American airplane experts who have been engaged in construction and instruction in France returned on the Orinima to assist in the development of the United States aerial service.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mercereau, regular season guests at the Gibbs hotel for a number of years, who had been at that house through the winter, as usual, departed this morning for their home in Ridgewood, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Mercereau have made numerous friends in Daytona during their winter sojourns here.

PRESIDENT WILSON HAS ASCERTAINED PUBLIC SENTIMENT

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president has before him recommendations of his principal cabinet advisers, and in a general way has heard the sentiment of the country.

The preponderance of opinion forwarded to the White House is for a declaration that a state of war exists between the United States and Germany.

The president is receiving a large number of telegrams of advice, many of them couched in identical language in favor of the maintenance of peace.

OPINION THAT U. S. ABOUT TO ACTIVELY ENTER WORLD WAR

WASHINGTON, March 30.—When the cabinet met today the consensus of opinion was that the United States is about to enter the war actively with Germany.

REIGN OF TERROR EXISTS IN MEXICAN OIL DISTRICT ACCORDING TO REPORTS

DAVID SHOLTZ LEAVES GERMAN INFLUENCE FOR STATE CAPITAL TO ATTEND LEGISLATURE IS SAID TO BE BACK OF THE MOVEMENT

Attorney David Sholtz, the prominent Daytona attorney who was nominated in the primary of June, 1916, and elected in November as representative from this part of Florida, left this morning for Tallahassee to attend the 60-day session of the state legislature which is about to commence.

Mr. Sholtz has scores of friends on the peninsula and in Daytona, who have congratulated him and who now wish him the best of success and believe that he will watch out for their interests and those of Volusia county as well or better than any previous representative from this section. He is one of the youngest men ever elected in this state to fill such an important office.

GALVESTON, March 30.—A reign of terror exists in the oil fields near Minatitlan, Mexico, said to be the result of German influences, according to passengers arriving from Mexico aboard a tanker, who said that all operations in the oil fields have ceased.

They also reported that W. H. T. Buckingham, general manager of the Augulla Oil company on the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, and his cashier, named Bannerman, were both killed. Both were British subjects.

FUNERAL SERVICES THIS MORNING OF MRS. HOENE

Funeral services were held at 10:00 o'clock this morning, at the residence on North Ridgewood avenue, over the remains of Mrs. H. H. Hoene, whose death occurred Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Wm. J. Drew, minister of the Congregational church, officiated. The funeral was quite largely attended, as the family have been winter residents of Daytona for many years and have numerous friends in the city and vicinity. The floral tokens were numerous and very beautiful. The body has been prepared for burial by the Bingham & Malley company and will be forwarded tomorrow to Pittsburgh, Pa., for interment, accompanied to that city by the daughters of the deceased, Mrs. E. H. Myers and Mrs. E. G. Hartje, residents of Pittsburgh, which was also the northern home of Mrs. Hoene.

COMPULSORY RECRUITING INTRODUCED IN POLAND

COPENHAGEN, March 30.—Warsaw dispatches show that compulsory recruiting is evidently about to be introduced in Poland.

POLAND TO CHOOSE OWN FORM OF GOVERNMENT

LONDON, March 30.—A Petrograd dispatch says that Russia has announced that it wishes Poland to choose its own government.

SWITZERLAND IS TO MAKE NO MOVE FOR PEACE AT PRESENT

BERNE, March 29.—The Swiss parliament today decided by a vote of 88 to 22 that Switzerland will make no move for peace at the present time.

AND STILL THE VISITORS WILL RETURN TO THE NORTH

Mrs. Katie D. Gilpin, who recently returned to Wyoming, Ohio, after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. Fred Brown, Daytona Beach, writing them from Wyoming said that the weather was very bad and, at that time, Tuesday of this week, it was snowing.

CLEVER FARCE TO BE GIVEN BY ENDEAVOR SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH TONIGHT

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Endeavor Society of the First Christian Church will give an interesting three-act farce, at the church, 228 S. Palmerton Ave., entitled, "The Unlucky Seven." During the evening there will be several musical numbers. Those who have parts in the play have practiced long and faithfully and are prepared to give an excellent production.

The cast of characters follows:
Ernest Hollwald, heir to the late Countess of Falkenberg, Max Webb, Jeremiah Ambrose, steward of the late Countess, Clarence Miller, daughters of Ambrose:

Ernestine, Violet Flint, Rose, Lucie Westberry, Edith Pollett, Gabrielle, Ida McKown, Annie, Allen, O'Brien, Dot, M. Moore, Adeline, Lois Pollett.

Formerly friends of the Countess: Madame Moonlight, Charlie Mims, Madam, Kunkel, Julia Johnson, Madame Moonlight, Anna Emma, Peasants—Jack Cook and Ralph Hedland.

Children—Ethelwyn Maly and Cecilia Pollett.

At the instrument—Miss Julia May, Peck, School—Miss Bridge, Admission, 25c.

Motoring north from Miami where they have been spending the winter, a party made up of Mrs. J. English, Earl Grant, Mrs. W. S. Grant and Mrs. Kathleen Grant, all of Chicago, spent Thursday night at the Windsor hotel.

Coming from Palm Beach to spend the remainder of the season in Daytona Beach, Mrs. John C. Fee and attractive daughter, Miss Louise Fee, of Rochester, N. Y., were becoming guests Wednesday at the Seaside Inn. Miss Fee will be a charming addition to the dancing set during her stay at the resort.

THE WEATHER

FOR FLORIDA: Fair tonight;
warmer in north and central portions.
Saturday fair. Gentle to moderate northeast winds, becoming southeast over northwest portion.

Except high rains on the New England coast, and over most of the Pacific coast states the weather was generally fair throughout the country during the last 24 hours, although cloudiness is increasing in Texas.

The weather is somewhat cooler east of the Mississippi river, except the Gulf coast states, but temperatures are generally higher than the seasonal average from the Gulf states northward in advance of the storm central over North Dakota. The winds are generally light and northeasterly on the lower coast. Conditions favor fair and warmer tonight. Saturday fair.

AUTO CALLOPE ATTRACTS PEOPLE

A novel advertising feature which attracted considerable attention on the streets today was the auto call-lopes, driven by Miss Inez Hart, special representative of the All Star Features of New York, whose pictures are shown today and tomorrow at the Arcade theatre.

Miss Hart, who is a woman with a clever, attractive personality, has been doing publicity work for the past five years and during this time while her work has taken her from coast to coast she has had many varied experiences which she relates in an interesting manner. From picture-making in Canada to Sunny Florida she has come in the interests of better movies. She plays the callopes remarkably well, whether popular music or the beautiful old time ballads and she attracted much attention in the city today.

Miss Hart is on the way to Miami and on completing her work in that city will return to New York City by way of the Dixie Highway. She is very enthusiastic about Florida's fine roads, as she has always been a booster for good roads through the south and east.

TRANQUILITY NOW PREVAILS IN SPAIN

WASHINGTON, March 19.—A revolutionary movement, which resulted in calling a general strike was directly responsible for the suspension yesterday of constitutional guarantees in Spain, according to an official dispatch to Ambassador Riano received from Madrid. The dispatch said the government had arrested the leaders of the strike manifesto and that tranquility now prevails.

MUNICIPAL DAYTONA BEACH ELECTION TO BE HELD SATURDAY

ALL INTERESTED IN OUTCOME OF ELECTION—J. E. CREECH AGAIN
RUNS FOR PLACE OF TOWN MARSHAL.

The Daytona Beach municipal election will take place Saturday, March 31, and its result is watched with interest by peninsula people.

Among the candidates for re-election to office is Marshal J. E. Creech, who has held the office for the past year and who was night watchman for the year preceding. Mr. Creech has given good satisfaction for the most part while marshal. His record for the past year shows more thorough work than any previous officer has ever done. Of the cases Mr. Creech brought before the mayor, 45 were convicted and fines collected to the amount of $239. At the general election last November, Mr. Creech was elected as constable for the peninsula part of the county. He has a large number of friends here who appreciate his work as marshal and night watchman and hope to see him re-elected. Mr. Creech's opponent is Homer A. Bennett, who has held the office for two years in the past.

E. E. Johnson, a well known resident of the beach, has just announced that he will run independently for the office of mayor, against Mayor John S. Barbe, who is a candidate for re-election. Mr. Johnson is chief of the local fire department and has held various municipal offices in the past. The names on the election ballot will be as follows:

For Mayor:
JOHN S. BARBE
For Councilmen: (Vote for two.)
ELMER OLIVER
A. N. OTIS
E. A. BRANCH
For Town Clerk and Tax Assessor:
(Vote for one.)
H. F. THOMPSON
R. L. SELDEN
For Tax Collector:
C. H. WILLSON
For Town Treasurer:
H. G. POLLITZ
For Marshal:
J. E. CREECH

The names of the independent candidates, E. E. Johnson and H. A. Bennett, will not appear on the ballot, but electors desiring to vote for either or both must write the name on the ballot and place a cross mark (X) before it.

John A. Phinney, accompanied by his daughters, Christine and Elizabeth, and his sons, Jere and Montgomery, left Thursday morning for Jacksonville and other points north. They have been staying here for three days, having motored up from West Palm Beach where they spent the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kennedy and party, who have been spending a very pleasant winter season at the Kennedy home on the river front and South Halifax avenue, plan to leave at the end of the week for their northern home in Youngstown, Ohio. They have had a very pleasant time at the beach, much of which has been spent in trips to other towns in this part of Florida.

The Loyal Temperance Legion picnic which to meet at 3:30 Saturday afternoon at the pier, Daytona Beach, will meet at 11:00 instead, owing to the exercises at the grave of the late Commodore Chas. G. Burgoyne at Pinewood cemetery at 4:30. All children who have attended previous meetings of the legion are invited and their parents will also be welcome. The regular meeting will take place as usual at 3:30 Sunday afternoon.

A party of Lake Butler people passed through here this morning in their Overland touring car on their return home by way of St. Augustine after visiting points south and in the interior. The members of the party were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson and daughter, M. L. Overstreet and Chas. A. Register. Mr. Johnson is a former publisher of the Bradford County Times. Mr. Register is a well known cotton dealer and Mr. Overstreet a merchant of Lake Butler.

The season colony at the Seaside Inn are anticipating with much pleasure the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Givens and daughter, Mrs. Polson and baby, and Mrs. Emma T. Secombe of Kingston, Ontario, who come every year for a spring visit at the resort. The party is expected the first of next week, coming from Auburndale, where Mr. and Mrs. Givens own a handsome winter home.

Miss Harriet E. Davey, of Amsterdam, N. Y., has joined her father, William McClear, at the Princess Isseena. The two expect to remain until the close of the season.

SEABREEZE

Two more motorists were caught recently by Marshal D. E. Lowe. Both were fined $10 and costs in mayor's court for speeding on Halifax avenue.

The members of the Seabreeze high school parliamentary club gave an enjoyable program at their literary hour this afternoon. It consisted of a play entitled "Manners and Modes" and was put on by the girls of the school. At the next meeting of the club, the boys will present "The Rise and Fall of the Grand Opera" in moving pictures.

MANY DINNERS GIVEN IN CLARENDON GRILL

The Lotus grill presented a festive scene Wednesday night, filled with many vivacious dinner groups. The attractive grill has claimed even more than its quota of popularity with the winter colony this season. The pretty parties given there have been numerous. With the wane of the season and the cessation of many of the gaieties at the resort, the grill has become even more popular and is nightly filled to capacity with supper parties after dancing, while many dinners are invariably given there preceding the hop in the ballroom. Among those noted in the grill Wednesday night were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Richmond, who had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Rose and Mr. Phinney. The party motored over from Ormond, where they are spending the season and remained for dancing. In another dinner party Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer B. Fuller, Mrs. Worthington Scranton, Mrs. E. B. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Scranton, Miss Evelyn McLeod and Miss Helen McLeod. At a third table Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schlessing entertained Mrs. Gertrude Roller and William T. McLaren. Mr. and Mrs. William G. Costen entertained two guests. Others who went down for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McDonald, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coombs. The largest supper party was that by T. M. McQueen, who entertained eleven guests. At Mr. McQueen's table were: Mr. and Mrs. P. Cornwall, Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hankins, Mrs. Ira H. Miller, Mrs. Klemmer, W. D. Stark and David Sholtz. Others who went down for supper were Russell Gorman, Ray Owens and Raymond Keeney.

Princess Isseena Hotel Seabreeze, Florida

WEEKLY HOP AT SEASIDE INN AN UNUSUALLY GAY EVENT

One of the gayest hops yet given at the Seaside Inn was that of last night when an unusually large number of the dancing contingent from the three resorts augmented the dancing set at the hotel.

The night was ideal for dancing and even that unique event, the street dance of the Daytona spring carnival, could not win away the dancers from the inn. Gaiety reigned in the ball room and took possession of the orchestra, who gave a splendid program of dance music that proved an inspiration to the dancing contingent.

The frocks worn by the matrons and maids were altogether charming, the influence of spring fashions being noted in many of the loveliest gowns. The men in white flannels made an attractive background for the slimy frocks of the feminine contingent.

When the first set of "Home Sweet Home" sounded signs of regret were general and not until the orchestra had responded to several showers did the dancers consent to leave the floor.

Mrs. C. M. Wilder will be the first hostess of the chain of Red Cross card parties which are to be given to raise funds for this worthy and soul-stirring cause. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Wilder will open her home to those who wish to play cards for the Red Cross. A donation of $1 per seat will be levied. Many have promised their donation of being present.

Grand Band, a guest at the Princess Isseena, entertained Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Broff at dinner Wednesday night.

MR. AND MRS. BURROWS ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Burrows, of Philadelphia, season guests at the Seaside Inn, entertained very charmingly at dinner at the Seaside hotel on Thursday evening for a few of their friends.

The table was made festive with a center cluster of red and white carnations and ferns. A delicious dinner was served in keeping with the hotel's splendid cuisine.

The guests included Dr. and Mrs. Robert McKay, Miss Beane, Mrs. C. E. Trappe, Mrs. L. J. White, Mrs. Beane.

Mrs. J. H. Cornwall was gowned in dark gray silk crepe richly embroidered in self tones. Mrs. C. E. Trappe of Cleveland whose gown was ashes of roses, sage-green crepe and champagne and touches of silver. Mrs. L. J. White wore gray sage-green crepe and champagne. Mrs. McKay's gown was of black net and tulle. Mrs. Beane wore white net and blue over white. Mrs. Beane wore a deep blue gown of tulle and silver mesh with bands of heavy silver lace and net. Mrs. Burrows, the hostess, wore a gown of deep blue tulle and net with touches of champagne and white and tulle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Davis and W. S. Davis of Tampa, Fla., were also guests of the Seaside Inn. Mr. Davis was a guest of the Seaside Inn. Mr. Davis was a guest of the Seaside Inn.

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR PALMEMO CLUB

Many Palmemo club members gathered at the clubhouse on Thursday afternoon for the annual election of officers and to hear the reading of the reports of officers of the department and committees.

Mrs. Nathaniel C. Sears, the club president, presided with Mrs. Alvare Milligan in her chair as recording secretary. Mrs. Sears called upon the chairman of the various departments for their reports which when read showed the club to be in an encouraging condition, and the financial affairs in a secure basis. Several reports have been made by the various departments which have shown the club to be in an encouraging condition, and the financial affairs in a secure basis.

Mrs. Milligan's report showed the club to be in an encouraging condition, and the financial affairs in a secure basis. Mrs. Milligan's report showed the club to be in an encouraging condition, and the financial affairs in a secure basis.

ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL BANQUET AT DESPLAND

Annually the juniors at the Daytona high school entertain the seniors and faculty at a banquet at the Despland hotel, but never was the dining room at the hotel more delightfully charming than on Thursday evening when this happy event took place.

Like a flower garden of pretty colors were the fair girls, juniors and seniors dressed in fashion's latest world of coloring and exquisite, escorted by valiant young men.

Marguerites in a huge basket amid a profusion of ferns, with butterflies of blue on the leaves formed the centerpiece of the banquet table. Forty-two covers were laid. Clarence Nash acted as toastmaster in a very clever way, giving upon each of the toasts and speeches in appropriate fashion. Remarks were heard from Mr. J. H. Cornwall, Principal H. Clay Marks, the president of the senior class, the president of the junior class, Mr. Clark, and the faculty.

Mrs. Nash acted as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. J. H. Marks, and Mrs. Clark. The banquet was a most successful one, and the seniors and faculty were most enjoyed.

WILBUR BY THE SEA

WILBUR-BY-THE-SEA, March 29.—Among the prominent Wilbur-by-the-Sea visitors Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dowling, of Brookline, Mass., who are cruising in southern waters in their palatial yacht, the Juliana. Mr. Dowling is a prominent Boston real estate dealer and is a member of the real estate exchange there.

Miss Grace Crowell, of Melrose, Mass., left the Toronita hotel Wednesday, for her northern home. Miss Crowell was very popular here, and will return next year to the new residence being constructed by her father on Oriole avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Myers, who are parents of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hughes, have left for their Boston quarters, the Hotel Touraine. They were accompanied by two of their grandchildren, Masters Benjamin and Charles Hughes, of whom they were very fond. Mr. Myers is vice-president of the Ames Shovel & Tool company, and was so favorably impressed with Wilbur-by-the-Sea that he extended his vacation to a much longer period than he had anticipated, and his many friends are looking forward to seeing him return another year.

Norman McHattie, a successful commission man in Pennsylvania, reluctantly left the Toronita hotel, where he has been entertained most of the season. Mr. McHattie was an ardent admirer of Wilbur, and although he frequently left for other places of interest, he invariably returned, preferring to spend his vacation near the beach.

Mrs. Carrie A. Davis, who conducts the gift shoppe at the Toronita hotel, continues to enjoy a fine patronage, many mail orders coming in. Owing to the large amount of business transacted of late, Mrs. Davis has been assisted by Miss Whittaker.

Miss Mary Fellows and her mother are now enjoying a brief visit in New York City before going to Malden, Mass., until the summer hotel season opens at Falmouth Heights, where Miss Fellows conducts a hotel.

Mrs. F. G. Shattuck and Miss Jane Shattuck, of New York, arrived in Daytona on Thursday and are registered at the Despland for a stay.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Tillinghast, of Providence, R. I., familiar figures in the winter life of Seabreeze and popular members of the Princess Isseena contingent, left yesterday for home.

Brooklyn guests at the Ridgewood are Mr. and Mrs. M. Bachrach and Miss F. Marjorie Bacharach, who will remain for a short visit in Daytona. The Bachrachs are touring Florida in a motor car and say that they have experienced fine roads thus far and the trip has been most enjoyable.

ALLANDALE

ALLANDALE, March 28.—Folks are commencing to take their departure. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Lewis and Dr. H. Edwin Lewis and family left for their home in Scarborough, N. Y., on Sunday, driving to Jacksonville in their automobile. Mr. and Mrs. McCree left on Tuesday. Dr. Vorles, who had made a ten days visit with the Arnolds, left on Monday. All have been delighted with their visits and plan to come again and feel assured of a welcome.

On Thursday, March 29th, Mrs. J. H. C. Howes will give the second musical at Ye Club house, the proceeds to go to the library building. Fine talent has been arranged for both musical and literary. Concert will commence at 7:30 and admission will be nominal.

The dance given last Wednesday at Ye Clubhouse was a very pleasant affair. Wilbur-by-the-Sea was well represented and Port Orange also. The dance was kept up well into the night and punch was served. Everybody had a good time as they always do in Allandale.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stayer, of Mason City, Ia., paid a short visit to Mrs. E. Billings, leaving on Tuesday for a short visit south to Palm Beach.

The fishermen are making some good catches, trout running fine. Hal Baldwin, with Capt. John Rusk, lands a few every day, and the Rev. Fithian is not far behind.

The library building has received new lights and fairly shines when lit up. The book cases are expected to

The Allandale Improvement association will meet on Monday evening, April 2nd, and all who are interested should attend as several good resorts will be made, things interesting to all.

The Misses Hall, who have been with Mrs. J. H. C. Howes for the season, left for their home on Cape Cod on Wednesday, very much pleased with their visit to this section and plan for another visit next year.

The Sunday evening song service was well attended last Sunday and as Mr. Fithian still remains here there will be services again next Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Hall Baldwin, who have been guests at Ye Inn for the past three weeks returned to their home in Cambridge, Mass., more than pleased with their stay here and look forward to a future visit.

Miss Mildred Caswell, of East Lansing, Mich., is at the Bennett for a short sojourn.

THE WINDSOR HOTEL TO REMAIN OPEN
It is indeed a pleasing announcement to state that the attractive Windsor hotel, so delightfully situated on South Beach street overlooking the Halifax, will remain open until the 10th of April, at least, because of the large patronage which the hotel is at present receiving and for the accommodation of the many guests who wish to remain until that time. Mr. and Mrs. J. Sutherland Smith, who have so ably conducted this hotel during the season of 1917, have made many friends while here, and it is hoped that they will decide to return another winter.

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT STEIGER LEAVE FOR SPRINGFIELD, MASS.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Steiger, who had been here for several weeks for awhile with John H. Ashley and Robert C. Hollister and family at 142 South Palmetto avenue and later as guests at the Seville hotel on South street left Thursday of this week on their return to Springfield, Mass. Their departure was marked by a great display of grief on the part of relatives and friends. A large piece of linen having been taken by them to the railway depot for the drying of their tears. Mr. Steiger is the owner of a number of large dry-goods and ladies' furnishing stores in Springfield and other points in New England. Being attracted to Daytona by the reports of the place furnished him by his brothers-in-law, Messrs. Ashley and Hollister, he backed up their opinion of the city by purchasing through the Bingham

FRECKLE FACE

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.
Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots that no one will call you freckle-face?
Simply get an ounce of outline double strength from your druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion. The sun and winds of March have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, and as a result more outline is sold in this month. Be sure to ask for the double strength outline, as this is sold under a guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.
